University of Texas at Austin 2014 Commencement Address - Admiral William H. McRaven notes

“What starts here changes the world”

“If you think that it’s hard to change the lives of ten people, then you are wrong.”

Ten basic lessons”

1. If you want to change the world, start by making your bed, so even if you have a terrible day, you will have a bed to come home to
2. You can't change the world by yourself, you need to find someone to help paddle
3. If you want to change the world, measure them by their heart not by their flippers
4. If you want to change the world, get over being a sugar cookie, and keep moving
5. If you want to change the world, don't be afraid of the circuses
6. If you want to change the world, sometimes you have to slide down the obstacles head first
7. If you want to change the world, you don't have to back down from the sharks
8. If you want to change the world, you must be your very best at the darkest moment
9. If you want to change the world, start singing when you are up to your neck in mud
10. If you want to change the world, do not ring the bell

General Welsh Speech to USAFA

“Remind yourself why you wear this (Uniform), your job is not pretty, but someone has to do it”

“Politics, technology...will change, but they won't.(Picture of airmen) will you be able to lead them”

“Look at them, they are all smiling. Is it because of this place (USAFA)?”

“Attention to detail, is it important? You decide. But you better have it when you leave here”

“You better be able to make decisions... and there isn't always gonna be someone to consult to make sure you got it right”

“If you don't know the story, then you can't lead the airmen.”

“Leadership is a gift, given by the followers”
